

No. RD-0024

From: gregwts
Sent: Wednesday, August 28, 2002 11:43 AM
To: comment@bpa.gov
Subject: comments

In any and all decisions based on reallocation of power to your customers a top priority must be conservation.

Simply granting new power contracts without any incentive to those who conserve or disincentives to those who do not conserve will not achieve the result, which is a wise use of these power sources

I oppose melding of power sources...pricing be based on true cost of delivery to the DSI's

Greg Flakus
13111 NE Fifth Avenue
Vancouver Washington 98685